Chapter 2—Forging a New Government: The Constitution

MULTIPLE CHOICE

|    | 111 L  | E CHOICE   |  |  |                  |                    |        |                         |
|----|--|--|--|--|------------------|--------------------|--------|-------------------------|
| 1. | a.b.c.d.   | Jamestown colorallowing the govinstituting a directinstituting a reprcreating a judicialwriting a constitu   | ernor toet demoesentationalsystem              | use a line-itemcracy.ve assembly.n.                      |                  | ment by            |        |                         |
|    | ANS  | S: C   | PTS:   | 1  | REF:             | 20                 | TOP:   | The Colonial Background |
| 2. | a.b.c.d.   | Separatist leaderlimit the power ofimpose some forprotect the colonprotect the colonimpose religious         | of womem of puists fromists from               | n in the colonicblic authority onEngland.n other foreign | es.on the co | olonists.          | in ord | er to                   |
|    | ANS  | S: B   | PTS:   | 1  | REF:             | 20                 | TOP:   | The Colonial Background |
| 3. | <ul> <li>One element of the Mayflower Compact's historical and political significance was that it</li> <li>a. served as a prototype for many similar compacts.</li> <li>b. shunned all previous forms of government.</li> <li>c. did not depend on the consent of the affected individuals.</li> <li>d. established the colony of Massachusetts.</li> <li>e. was a constitution.</li> </ul>  |  |  |  |                  |                    |        |                         |
|    | ANS  | S: A   | PTS:   | 1  | REF:             | 21                 | TOP:   | The Colonial Background |
| 4. | <ul> <li>During the colonial period, which of the following developments did NOT take place?</li> <li>a. The colonists developed a concept of limited government.</li> <li>b. The colonists exercised a large measure of self-government.</li> <li>c. The colonists passed the Pennsylvania Frame of Government, which foreshadowed our modern Constitution.</li> <li>d. Louisiana was established as the last of the thirteen colonies.</li> <li>e. The colonists acquired crucial political experience.</li> </ul> |  |  |  |                  |                    |        |                         |
|    | ANS  | S: D   | PTS:   | 1  | REF:             | 21                 | TOP:   | The Colonial Background |
| 5. | <ul><li>a.</li><li>b.</li><li>c.</li><li>d.</li><li>e.</li></ul> ANS   | British governmenthe coronation of the establishmenthe costs of defer the purchase of the Revolutionar S: C P: British Restricts | f King Ct of mornding thCanada (y War.PTS: | George III. re colonies. re colonists dur. (Quebec) from             | ing the the Fre  | French and Indnch. |        | ır.                     |

- 6. Taxes that the British attempted to impose in the years leading up to the Revolution included all of the following EXCEPT
  - a. the Sugar Act.

|     | <ul> <li>b. the Stamp Act, which taxed, among other things, legal documents and newspapers.</li> <li>c. duties on glass, lead, and paint.</li> <li>d. a tax on tea.</li> <li>e. an income tax.</li> </ul>   |
|-----|---|
|     | ANS: E PTS: 1 REF: 21-22 TOP: British Restrictions and Colonial Grievances  |
| 7.  | The colonists' fury over taxation climaxed in a. the French and Indian War. b. the repeal of the Stamp Act. c. the passage of the Pennsylvania Charter of Privileges. d. the Boston Tea Party. e. the Mayflower Compact.  |
|     | ANS: D PTS: 1 REF: 22 TOP: British Restrictions and Colonial Grievances   |
| 8.  | <ul> <li>The First Continental Congress</li> <li>a. was called by the colonies to seek independence from Britain.</li> <li>b. called for the abdication of King George III.</li> <li>c. passed resolutions requiring that the colonies raise their own troops and boycott British trade.</li> <li>d. was ignored by the British.</li> <li>e. was attended by delegates from only six colonies.</li> </ul> |
|     | ANS: C PTS: 1 REF: 23 TOP: The Colonial Response: The Continental Congresses  |
| 9.  | One of the main actions of the Second Continental Congress was  a. to establish an army.  b. to sign a treaty with Britain prohibiting armed conflict.  c. to sign a treaty with France to declare war on Britain.  d. the creation of a unitary government in America.  e. to bring the remaining seven colonies into the congress.  |
|     | ANS: A PTS: 1 REF: 23 TOP: The Colonial Response: The Continental Congresses  |
| 10. | Thomas Paine's pamphlet Common Sense argued that  a. a new government should be formed that would still be loyal to the king.  b. a government should be established that would limit further immigration.  c. it is unwise and unsafe to form a constitution of our own.  d. a government of our own is our natural right.  e. taxation is an immoral act.  |
|     | ANS: D PTS: 1 REF: 23 TOP: The Colonial Response: The Continental Congresses  |
| 11. | In June 1776, was already writing drafts of the Declaration of Independence.  a. John Locke b. John Adams c. Thomas Jefferson d. George Washington e. Benjamin Franklin   |

|     | ANS: C   | PTS:   | 1                                      | REF:      | 24                | TOP:     | Declaring Independence         |
|-----|--|--|--|-----------|-------------------|----------|--------------------------------|
| 12. | "We hold these Trutha. Constitution of thb. Declaration of Inc. Magna Charta.d. United Nations Ce. Bill of Rights.       | ne Unitedepend                           | ed States of An                        |           | Men are created   | equal"   | are words from the             |
|     | ANS: B   | PTS:   | 1                                      | REF:      | 24                | TOP:     | Declaring Independence         |
| 13. | A voluntary agreeme and abiding by its rul a. a confederation. b. a social contract. c. a syndicate. d. a constitution. e. natural law.      |  |  | to secur  | re their rights a | nd welf  | are by creating a government   |
|     | ANS: B   | PTS:   | 1                                      | REF:      | 25                | TOP:     | Declaring Independence         |
| 14. | The unalienable right a. of free speech an b. to freely associat c. to life, liberty, an d. to life, liberty, an e. to freedom of rel        | d a freee and asid the pid prope | press.ssemble.ursuit of happin |           | n of Independer   | nce incl | uded the right                 |
|     | ANS: C   | PTS:   | 1                                      | REF:      | 25                | TOP:     | Declaring Independence         |
| 15. | Rights held to be inhous. constitutional rights. c. implied rights. d. natural rights. e. enumerated right.                                  | hts.   |  |           |                   |          |                                |
|     |  |  |  | REF:      |                   |          | Declaring Independence         |
| 16. | After the colonists for continued for a. five more months b. one more year. c. five more years. d. eight more years. e. thirteen more years. | S.   | declared indep                         | endence   | e from Britain,   | the figh | at to gain actual independence |
|     | ANS: C   | PTS:   | 1                                      | REF:      | 26                | TOP:     | The Rise of Republicanism      |
| 17. | Britain formally recoa. Treaty of Paris.b. Treaty of Washirc. Treaty of Londond. Treaty of Peace.e. Declaration of St    | ngton.1.                                 | •                                      | ace of th | ne United States  | s in the |                                |

|     | ANS:   | A   | PTS:   | 1  | REF:                    | 26                                 | TOP:     | The Rise of Republicanism      |
|-----|--|---|--|--|-------------------------|------------------------------------|----------|--------------------------------|
| 18. | <ul><li>a. pa</li><li>b. co</li><li>c. m</li><li>d. bi</li></ul>                 | slature with onarliamentary deonsensus.onotheistic legicameral legislanicameral legisla                           | mocracyslature.ture.                                 | y.   | nber is (               | called a                           |          |                                |
|     | ANS:   | E   | PTS:   | 1  | REF:                    | 26                                 | TOP:     | The Rise of Republicanism      |
| 19. | <ul><li>a. a :</li><li>b. a :</li><li>c. a :</li><li>go</li><li>d. a :</li></ul> | voluntary assoc   | h most priation of the state a                               | power is with the findependent and local gover                         | states.nments       | ral governmenthave equal pov   |          | h the central                  |
|     | ANS:TOP:   |   | PTS: of Confe  |  | REF:First Fo        | 26orm of Governn               | nent     |                                |
| 20. | <ul><li>a. Co</li><li>b. Co</li><li>c. Co</li><li>d. Tl</li></ul>                | on of the following ongress was a unongress lacked ongress could represident of each state possess                                    | inicamean indegegulatethe Uni                    | ral assembly.pendent sourceforeign affairsted States was   | of reve                 | by Congress.                       | ederatio | n?                             |
|     | ANS:TOP:   |   | PTS:of Confe   |  | REF:First Fo        | 27orm of Governn               | nent     |                                |
| 21. | their ea. abb. lacc. ord. lac  | bly the most fureventual replaceosence of an ex-ck of provisionne-vote-per-statck of ability tock of power to | ement byecutive offor a pro-ee systemconduct | y the Constitution committee. resident of the land. the foreign policy | ion, waUnited7. | s the                              | ederatio | n, and the most basic cause of |
|     | ANS:TOP:   |   | PTS:of Confe   |  | REF:First Fo        | 28orm of Governn               | nent     |                                |
| 22. | a. Deb. Soc. Rld. Me. V  | elawareouth Carolinahode Islandarylandirginia   |  |  |                         | itutional Conve                    |          |                                |
|     | ANS:   | C   | PTS:   | 1  | REF:                    | 29                                 | TOP:     | Drafting the Constitution      |
| 23. | a. ur  | -   | e were   | problems with  |                         | onvention werecicles of Confed |          |                                |

|     | e.  | nationalists in  | favor of a  | stronger centra                              | al gover | nment.       |         |                               |
|-----|---|--|---|--|----------|--------------|---------|-------------------------------|
|     | ANS   | S: E   | PTS:  | 1  | REF:     | 29           | TOP:    | Drafting the Constitution     |
| 24. | The Virginia Plan  a. called for a bicameral legislature.  b. worked to the advantage of small states.  c. provided for the direct election of a president by the people.  d. settled all controversy at the Constitutional Convention.  e. lacked the creation of a national judiciary.  |  |   |  |          |              |         |                               |
|     | ANS   | S: A   | PTS:  | 1  | REF:     | 30           | TOP:    | Drafting the Constitution     |
| 25. | a.b.c.d.  | ically, the Newthe result of tha way for largesimply an amesimply an amethe Constitution     | e Great Coe states tondment ofndment of     | ompromise.grab power.the Articles of |          |              |         |                               |
|     | ANS   | S: C   | PTS:  | 1  | REF:     | 30           | TOP:    | Drafting the Constitution     |
| 26. | <ul><li>a.</li><li>b.</li><li>c.</li><li>d.</li></ul>   | supremacy dolarge states overnon-slave statenational law overnatural law overthe legislative | er small stes over slaver state laer man-ma | ates. ve states. ws. de laws.                |          |              |         |                               |
|     | ANS   | S: C   | PTS:  | 1  | REF:     | 30           | TOP:    | Drafting the Constitution     |
| 27. | <ul> <li>The plan known as the Great Compromise</li> <li>a. was advanced by the delegates from Georgia.</li> <li>b. proposed a bicameral legislature.</li> <li>c. was presented too late to be considered.</li> <li>d. was proposed by Texas.</li> <li>e. proposed a unicameral legislature in which each state would have one vote.</li> </ul> |  |   |  |          |              |         |                               |
|     | ANS   | S: B   | PTS:  | 1  | REF:     | 30           | TOP:    | Drafting the Constitution     |
| 28. | a.b.c.d.  | three-fifths cothe southern stthe northern stthe small statethe large stateswomen            | atesatess                                       | illustrates the                              | power o  | of at th     | e Const | itutional Convention.         |
|     | ANS   | S: A   | PTS:  | 1  | REF:     | 31           | TOP:    | Drafting the Constitution     |
| 29. | a.b.  | ich of the folloThere was no lOnly a SuprenCongress.Slavery was ou                               | oan on thene Court w                                | importation of                               | fslaves  | before 1808. |         | n?r courts was left up to |

c. nationalists in favor of instituting a monarchy.d. moderates in favor of keeping the Articles of Confederation with very few changes.

|     | <ul><li>d. Represent</li><li>e. States wer</li></ul>                               | ation in the Horere equally repr  |   |                                  | s was bas        | sed on a state   | 's population.  |
|-----|--|---|---|----------------------------------|------------------|------------------|---|
|     | ANS: C   | PTS:  | 1   | REF:                             | 31               | TOP:             | Drafting the Constitution                             |
| 30. | d. the World   | need the mon  | ey.ight.mise that expzation prohibi               | ort taxests it fron          | would no         | ot be imposed    |   |
|     | ANS: C   | PTS:  | 1   | REF:                             | 31               | TOP:             | Drafting the Constitution                             |
| 31. | <ul><li>b. the imposi</li><li>c. a major di</li><li>d. disputes o</li></ul>        | f separation ofetween the fedtion of exportspute over povver power betytion of tyrann         | leral and statetaxes.wer between theween Congres  | governnhe Houses and the | and the presider | Senate.          | prevent   |
|     | ANS: E   | PTS:  | 1   | REF:                             | 32               | TOP:             | Drafting the Constitution                             |
| 32. | sometimes cala. Compromb. American   | led the ise model. model. onian model. in model.  | nt powers into  | three br                         | anches (         | executive, leg   | gislative, and judicial) is                           |
|     | ANS: D   | PTS:  | 1   | REF:                             | 32               | TOP:             | Drafting the Constitution                             |
| 33. | <ul><li>b. the preside</li><li>c. the preside</li><li>d. Congress</li></ul>        | f checks and bech of the goverent to veto jud-ent to pass lawto select justicary to print pap | rnment to be a cicial decisions is during a times of the Supr | able to chs.ne of cris   | is.              | actions of the   | others.   |
|     | ANS: A   | PTS:  | 1   | REF:                             | 32               | TOP:             | Drafting the Constitution                             |
| 34. | <ul><li>b. the Congret</li><li>c. the Association</li><li>d. the Elector</li></ul> | t officially elec-ential Electionessional Electi-tation of Stateral College.rate at Large.    | Commission on Forum.  |                                  | United S         | States is called | d   |
|     | ANS: D   | PTS:  | 1   | REF:                             | 33               | TOP:             | Drafting the Constitution                             |
| 35. | <ul><li>a. popular so</li><li>b. a republicathem.</li></ul>                        | overeignty, or o  | control by thet in which the                              | people.                          |                  | -                | nental principles EXCEPT to make decisions for |

|    | <ul><li>d. a federal system that allows for states' rights, because the states feared too much centralized control.</li><li>e. presidential infallibility.</li></ul>   |   |
|----|--|---|
|    | ANS: E PTS: 1 REF: 34 TOP: Drafting the Constitution   | n |
| 36 | <ul> <li>5. Ratification of the Constitution was to occur when it was approved by</li> <li>a. the thirteen state legislatures.</li> <li>b. nine out of thirteen states.</li> <li>c. the thirteen state legislatures and two-thirds of Congress.</li> <li>d. popular vote in nine states.</li> <li>e. popular vote in all thirteen states.</li> </ul>   |   |
|    | ANS: B PTS: 1 REF: 34 TOP: The Difficult Road to Ratification  |   |
| 37 | <ul> <li>7. The Federalists advocated</li> <li>a. preserving the status quo.</li> <li>b. returning to the Articles of Confederation.</li> <li>c. ratifying the new Constitution.</li> <li>d. a strong state government system.</li> <li>e. constitutional monarchy.</li> </ul>   |   |
|    | ANS: C PTS: 1 REF: 34 TOP: The Difficult Road to Ratification  |   |
| 38 | <ul> <li>a. altering the Constitution to include guaranteed personal liberties.</li> <li>b. a strong central government.</li> <li>c. ratifying the new Constitution.</li> <li>d. an end to slavery.</li> <li>e. rule by the aristocracy.</li> </ul>  |   |
|    | ANS: A PTS: 1 REF: 34 TOP: The Difficult Road to Ratification  |   |
| 39 | <ul> <li>D. The Bill of Rights was important for ratification of the Constitution because</li> <li>a. state constitutions already had such rights.</li> <li>b. such rights were stipulated in the Articles of Confederation.</li> <li>c. some states would not have voted to ratify the Constitution without the promise of amendments to protect individual liberties.</li> <li>d. the colonists wanted to conform to international standards.</li> <li>e. the Federalists were wary of a strong central government.</li> </ul> |   |
|    | ANS: C PTS: 1 REF: 35 TOP: The Bill of Rights  |   |
| 40 | <ul> <li>a. protection of individual liberties at the state level.</li> <li>b. protection of individual liberties at the national level.</li> <li>c. equal protection under the law.</li> <li>d. protection against state infringements on the freedoms of conscience, the press, and jury trial.</li> <li>e. separation of powers.</li> </ul>   |   |
|    |  |   |

REF: 36

TOP: The Bill of Rights

ANS: B

PTS: 1

| 41. | The U.S. Constitution is shorter than any state constitution EXCEPT that of a. Maryland. b. Vermont. c. South Carolina. d. Georgia. e. New York.  |
|-----|---|
|     | ANS: B PTS: 1 REF: 36 TOP: Altering the Constitution: The Formal Amendment Process  |
| 42. | One of the two formal methods of proposing an amendment to the Constitution is by a. popular vote. b. a two-thirds vote in each chamber of Congress. c. approval of the legislatures in a majority of the states. d. a majority vote in both chambers of Congress, provided the amendment is not vetoed by the president. e. a judicial submission.   |
|     | ANS: B PTS: 1 REF: 36 TOP: Altering the Constitution: The Formal Amendment Process  |
| 43. | A constitutional amendment can be ratified by  a. a majority of the popular vote.  b. a positive vote in three-fourths of the legislatures of the various states.  c. a two-thirds vote in both houses of Congress.  d. approval of the legislatures in two-thirds of the states.  e. presidential approval.  |
|     | ANS: B PTS: 1 REF: 36 TOP: Altering the Constitution: The Formal Amendment Process  |
| 44. | Which groups are involved in proposing and ratifying amendments to the Constitution?  a. The state legislatures, the president, and Congress  b. The Senate, the Supreme Court, and the House of Representatives  c. Congress, the president, and the people  d. The Senate, the House of Representatives, and the state legislatures  e. The House of Representatives, the president, and the Senate |
|     | ANS: D PTS: 1 REF: 36 TOP: Altering the Constitution: The Formal Amendment Process  |
| 45. | Out of more than 11,000 amendments to the Constitution that have been considered by Congress, only  have been ratified.  b. 12  c. 18  d. 27  e. 33   |
|     | ANS: D PTS: 1 REF: 37 TOP: Altering the Constitution: The Formal Amendment Process  |
| 46. | Judicial review is a. a method by which the president can check the judiciary. b. the process of confirmation of federal judges by Congress.  |

|      | <ul> <li>c. the power of the courts to declare federal or state laws and other acts of government unconstitutional.</li> <li>d. not applicable to actions by state governments.</li> <li>e. restricted to the Supreme Court in overturning decisions by lower courts.</li> </ul>   |
|------|--|
|      | ANS: C PTS: 1 REF: 38 TOP: Informal Methods of Constitutional Change   |
| 47.  | Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution gives Congress the power to, and this clause has been cited as the basis for passing thousands of laws.  a. override presidential vetoes  b. regulate foreign and interstate commerce c. limit the power of local governments d. regulate the media e. levy income taxes  |
|      | ANS: B PTS: 1 REF: 38 TOP: Informal Methods of Constitutional Change   |
| 48.  | An executive agreement is  a. any law which deals with the administration of the federal bureaucracy.  b. a legally binding agreement between the president and the electorate.  c. an unwritten agreement between the president and Congress.  d. an informal agreement between the president and a foreign head of state.  e. a legally binding agreement between the president and a foreign head of state. |
|      | ANS: E PTS: 1 REF: 38 TOP: Informal Methods of Constitutional Change   |
| 49.  | In 1803, the Supreme Court claimed the power of for itself in Marbury v. Madison .  a. judicial review b. constitutional amendment c. legislative ratification d. executive review e. appeal  ANS: A PTS: 1 REF: 38   |
|      | TOP: Informal Methods of Constitutional Change   |
| 50.  | Basically, the law is what says it is at any point in time.  a. the Senate b. the Supreme Court c. the president d. the press e. the academic community  |
|      | ANS: B PTS: 1 REF: 39 TOP: Informal Methods of Constitutional Change   |
| ESSA | Y  |
| 1.   | Explain what impact the institutions established in the early American settlements had on the structure and operation of later governments in the U.S.   |

ANS:

|   | Stude              | nts' answers m          | ay vary         | •                |          |  |
|---|--------------------|-------------------------|-----------------|------------------|----------|--|
|   | PTS:               | 1                       | REF:            | 21               | TOP:     | The Colonial Background  |
| 2 | 2. Did tlargun |                         | end the         | United States to | be a C   | Christian nation? Describe both sides of the   |
|   | ANS:Stude      | ents' answers m         | ay vary         |                  |          |  |
|   | PTS:               | 1                       | REF:            | 22               | TOP:     | At Issue: Just How Christian Were the Founders?  |
| 3 |                    |                         |                 |                  |          | ependence. What was its immediate practical What philosophies influenced the ideas it contained? |
|   | ANS:Stude      | ents' answers m         | ay vary         |                  |          |  |
|   | PTS:               | 1                       | REF:            | 24               | TOP:     | Declaring Independence   |
| 4 |                    |                         |                 |                  |          | nder the Articles of Confederation. How did the attitutional Convention?                         |
|   | ANS:Stude      | nts' answers m          | ay vary         |                  |          |  |
|   | PTS:TOP:       |                         | REF:of Conf |                  | First Fo | orm of Government  |
| 5 |                    | ribe the controvention? | ersy sui        | rrounding the sl | lavery i | ssue. How was this resolved at the Constitutional  |
|   | ANS:Stude      | ents' answers m         | ay vary         |                  |          |  |
|   | PTS:               | 1                       | REF:            | 31               | TOP:     | Drafting the Constitution  |
| 6 |                    | _                       | _               | _                |          | checks and balances, and explain why the Founding of the Constitution.                           |
|   | ANS:Stude      | nts' answers m          | ay vary         |                  |          |  |
|   | PTS:               | 1                       | REF:            | 32               | TOP:     | Drafting the Constitution  |
| 7 |                    |                         |                 |                  |          | mises were made to garner the support of various s that surrounded them.                         |
|   | ANS:Stude      | ents' answers m         | av varv         |                  |          |  |
|   |                    |                         |                 |                  |          |  |

8. The Constitution's ratification process included arguments for and against ratification by Federalists and Anti-Federalists, respectively. Describe and evaluate the arguments expressed by both of these groups.

ANS:

Students' answers may vary.

PTS: 1 REF: 34 TOP: The Difficult Road to Ratification

9. Describe the two formal methods of proposing an amendment to the Constitution.

ANS:

Students' answers may vary.

PTS: 1 REF: 36

TOP: Altering the Constitution: The Formal Amendment Process

10. The process of amending the U.S. Constitution is an intentionally difficult one. Yet those in each branch of government have found ways in which the Constitution can be changed informally. Describe the methods, both formal and informal, of constitutional change.

ANS:

Students' answers may vary.

PTS: 1 REF: 38 TOP: Informal Methods of Constitutional Change